NEWS RELEASE

January 24, 2018

It is with great sadness that I acknowledge the passing on January 23 of Doris McLean. Ms. McLean served the Yukon Legislative Assembly as Deputy Sergeant at Arms from November 3, 2003 until the end of July 2016, and as Sergeant-at-Arms from July 2016 until her resignation on September 30, 2017.

Ms. McLean, a former Chief of the Carcross/Tagish First Nation, was of Tlingit and Tagish ancestry, belonged to the Dakl'aweidi (killer whale) clan, and was the first indigenous person to serve the Legislative Assembly as Sergeant-at-Arms. Ms. McLean conducted her official duties with dignity and efficiency, and was well-liked and highly respected by all those who came in contact with her. All members of the Legislative Assembly and Legislative Assembly staff who served during her tenure will miss her.
